Solid white shows the extent of the ski area clearings in 1986, when the ski area closed. Green patches show areas proposed to be maintained as early successional habitat, totaling about 15 acres. Existing trails are shown as dashed black lines. The Hogback Mountain Conservation Area boundaries are shown in brown.